

Shellerray Barnes is a native of Gary, Indiana and found her purpose at the tender age of 5 when she began her love affair with dance via Corrine's Dance Studio. At Corrine's Shellerrays' talent was immediately evident as she studied ballet, jazz, modern and tap. By the time she was 14 years old Shellerray had ascended to the position of student teacher. Shellerray would continue her arts education as a Dance Major at Emerson Visual and Performing Arts Center. In 1994 as a freshman in High School, Shellerray placed 4th in Hal Jackson's Ms. Talented Teen International, a competition held in the Virgin Islands. After graduation in 1997, Shellerray would later become a dance team member for the Gary Steelheads, take numerous dance classes and partake in both acting and dance performances. In 2018, Shellerray was a cast member in the West Side Theater Guilds production of The Wiz. In 2019 Shellerray had the privilege of dancing for the Jackson Family as they broke ground on the Hard Rock Cafe.

Shellerray, who affectionately calls Asia Dickens and Arnisha Fulton mentors, is currently in works to own a facility that will house and combine the powers of Dance, Reiki Healing, Quantum Healing, Yoga and the Rhythm of our ancestors under one roof.
