

Da'Marco (Marco) Kimble is a native of Gary, IN, and started dancing at a very young age. Entering his 8th grade year in middle school he became a member of South Shore Dance Alliance under the direction of Larry Brewer. He began to formally train in dance at Emerson School for the Visual and Performing Arts in sixth grade until graduating in 2013. Da'Marco has trained with Ballet Chicago, Deeply Rooted Dance Theater, Alvin Ailey American Dance Theatre in New York, Indiana Contemporary Dance Company at Indiana University-Bloomington, and Debbie Allen Dance Academy in Los Angeles, California.

Marco has a deep passion for giving back to his community as an instructor at Asia's Dance Factory. Da'Marco has trained under Asia Dickens, owner of Asia's Dance Factory for about 10 years. He has been an instructor for ADF for 4 glorious years, and can't wait to see what's in store next for him and the team. Da'Marco is currently performing, training, and choreographing. He is always looking for students and studios where he can provide his huge personality and professional expertise.
